

Jesus said to them,
“I tell you,
the tax collector
went home justified,
not the Pharisee;
for whoever
exalt themselves
will be humbled,
and those who
humble themselves
will be exalted.”

LUKE 18:14

To Boast or Not to Boast

The Gospel makes it pretty clear that exalting yourself is not the way into the Kingdom. So it might sound strange to hear Paul saying he competed well and finished the race and now expects the winner's crown. So why is he any different from the Pharisee in the Gospel?

The Pharisee probably was being honest about himself. Sure, he fasts and tithes, is not greedy or adulterous, but he misses the point. He thinks that justification, being right with God, comes from a person's accomplishments. He feels no need to ask for God's mercy. Yet if he relied on that mercy, he wouldn't boast about his good deeds. Instead, he would ask for God's mercy and then thank God by doing good or being generous. In other words, he put the cart before the horse. He thinks that God is waiting to be bribed with good deeds (or at least a lack of bad ones) so that he can be justified. "After all," thinks the Pharisee, "what else are good deeds for if not to make me look good?"

St. Paul, on the other hand, looks at his life as a Pharisee and is amazed that God forgave his "good works" of keeping the law and persecuting Christians. He is so grateful for God's mercy that he can't wait to tell everyone about Jesus and how he loves us. His boasting is not about what he has done for God; it's more about what God has done through him. In verse 17, he credits God, who gave him the strength to preach the Good News.

Maybe you have examples of what God has done in your life: the people God sent to love you, the talents or abilities God gave you, the times God forgave your sins. Are you so grateful for what God has done that you want to do more for God? Or do you go to church, put your offering in the collection, and work a booth at the parish picnic so that God will be grateful to you? It sounds obvious when put that way, but it is tempting to think that God loves us more when we do good things. Remember that God loved St. Paul while he was still persecuting Christians, loved him enough not only to forgive him but to make him into a great apostle. Why waste your time trying to earn that love, when you could be doing whatever you can to thank God for it?

What's the story behind

"All Hallow's Eve"?

Halloween, a Christian term meaning "holy evening," has its roots in the British Isles of ancient times. The Celts divided the year into two parts, summer and winter. October 31 was celebrated as the last day of summer. It was called "Samhain," meaning "summer's end."

It was believed that on this night of seasonal changes, the curtain between the living and the dead was particularly thin. Spirits could rise up and roam the earth on this night. For protection, the Celts carved faces into turnips and other root vegetables and placed candles inside, hoping this eerie lantern would frighten off any bad spirits. Some people also wore costumes or masks to fool the spirits into thinking they too were spirits to be avoided. When the Romans arrived, their customs of the harvest festival were added, with an emphasis on apples.

As with many other pre-Christian customs, Samhain became a Christian holiday. In 835, Pope Gregory IV sought to replace Samhain with All Saint's Day, followed by All Soul's Day.
