Matthew 10:31

The Paradox of Faith

"Fear no one," Jesus says. He is talking about fearing those who persecute you for your faith. In the verses before this Gospel passage, he tries to prepare us for that persecution and says that since it was done to him (Jesus), it would be done to his followers.

But what happened to Jesus? He was crucified, but rose from the dead. So he triumphed over his persecutors; they could not stop him. And that is what he promises us. Whatever persecution, ridicule, or discrimination we suffer for our faith, we cannot be destroyed as long as we keep that faith.

Now the best way to keep that faith is to give it away. That sounds like a paradox, but it means that when we spread the faith, our faith grows, too. Sure, it takes courage to talk about our faith to another, but when we share our stories about what God means to us, we relive those experiences; we remind ourselves what God has done for us. And when we allow others to share their faith with us, we are encouraged and supported. That is why Jesus says that what is hidden will be made known: True faith never stays hidden; it needs to be shared.

Sometimes we may hesitate to talk about our faith. If we let ourselves be tempted to silence, we are letting the devil have his way. That is the only thing to fear: not Satan's power, but our weakness. That's why Jesus said whoever denies him will be denied by him. Yet Jesus died for our sins, so even they cannot destroy us if we turn back to the Lord. Just as God knows every sparrow that falls, so he knows us when we fall and values us more than sparrows.

So thank him for his forgiveness, but don't forget to spread the news that you are forgiven. You might give someone else the courage to come back to the Lord, and so score another victory for faith over fear.

Mass and Sacrament Guidelines for the Current Conditions

Social distancing remains in effect for Mass. Here are the guidelines at Nativity

As stated by Bishop Guglielmone, Mass attendance must not exceed 50% of our sanctuary's seating capacity of 734. However, to allow plenty of room for social distancing at Nativity

- The number of people attending each weekend Mass is limited to 150.
- Once we reach our maximum number, then no one else can attend that Mass.

The Bishop has extended the dispensation from the requirement to attend Sunday Mass during this transition period.

- Those with underlying health conditions and the elderly should consider not coming to Mass.
- The sick and vulnerable should definitely not come to Mass.
- If you would feel more comfortable with a smaller number of people, then you may wish to attend a weekday Mass instead and use that as your "Communion day".

The Interim Mass schedule at Nativity

- Monday through Friday—Mass is 11:30 am
- Sign up is not required for weekday Mass.
- Saturday—Mass is 5:30 pm and attendance is limited to 150
- Sunday—Masses are 9:00 and 11:30 am and attendance is limited to 150 at each Mass.

Nativity has established a system so you can reserve your place at Weekend Masses

- Here is the link to Reserve your space at Weekend Mass.
<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040a4caaad29a2f58-confirmed>
- Here is another option. Try this shorter link.
<https://bit.ly/2YR2mr6> (note that short links like this are case sensitive)
- Or even easier, just scan the QR code at right with your smart phone app. —>>>
- If you cannot access the online sign up system, please call the parish office and leave a message with Mass time and number of attendees. We will register you and only call you back if spaces are full for requested Mass time.
- Once we reach our maximum number, then no one else can register for that Mass.

To schedule a Mass intention

- Put your Mass intention envelope in the basket at the back of the church,
- or put it through the mail slot in the parish office door,
- or email your intention to Fr. Kingsley at Pastor@NativityCharleston.org.

Other Safety Guidelines at Mass

- You may wish to wear a protective mask.
- Please use the restroom only when absolutely necessary.
- Stay at least six feet away from non-family members at all times.
- Please don't use the hymnals. We will provide disposable worship aids.
- There will be no sign of peace.
- Communion will only be distributed in the hand.
- There will be no social events, such as coffee and doughnuts, before or after Mass.
- We will ensure proper cleaning of frequently touched surfaces after each Mass.
- Children's Liturgy, Nursery and Quiet Room are not available during this time.
- Please take uncomfortable children outside if needed.

Offertory Collection

In the interests of your health, will not be taken up during Mass. Please place donations in the baskets at the back of the church (near the restrooms).

- If you choose to go behind the screen, the priest will sit six feet away from the screen.

EUCARIST

Join us for weekly discussion through Sunday, August 9, 2020 @ 7:00 pm on Google Classroom.

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching. "The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching?

We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.

Sir Thomas More — A Man for All Seasons

The feast of St. Thomas More is June 22

Sir Thomas More (7 February 1478 – 6 July 1535), venerated in the Catholic Church as Saint Thomas More, was an English lawyer, social philosopher, author, statesman, and noted Renaissance humanist. He was also a chancellor to King Henry VIII, and Lord High Chancellor of England.

Thomas opposed the Protestant Reformation and the theologies of Martin Luther, Huldrych Zwingli, John Calvin and William Tyndale. Thomas also opposed Henry VIII's separation from the Catholic Church. He refused to acknowledge Henry as supreme head of the Church of England as well as the annulment of Henry's marriage to Catherine of Aragon. After refusing to take the Henry's 'Oath of Supremacy', Thomas was convicted of treason and beheaded. On his execution, he was reported to have said: "I die the King's good servant, and God's first".

Pope Leo XIII beatified Thomas More in 1886 and Pope Pius XI canonized More in 1935. Pope John Paul II declared Thomas More "the heavenly Patron of Statesmen and Politicians". In doing so, John Paul cited More's generous work, both as a lawyer and in government service, on behalf of the poorest and most marginalized people of his time, as well as his promotion of education for all sectors of society.

HAPPY FATHERS' DAY

A Prayer for Fathers

Almighty God, you have taught us that you are the Father of us all, and that all fatherhood takes its origin from you.
You protect us from evil and provide our daily bread. You are strength and integrity, blessing and the font of life.

We thank you, then, for our fathers.

Though human, they are also a reflection of you, Lord God. They are your gift to us.

We pray for all fathers today. May they realize the greatness of their vocation and have the strength to live it without fear.
Forgive their sins, and keep their eyes raised up to you.

To those who still make this earthly journey with us, give us the grace to love them as we should;
And to those whom you have called from this life, give a special place of honor in the heavenly kingdom with you, the Father of all.

We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.
