23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother." - Mt 18:15

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

Repairing a Damaged Relationship

Jesus offers his disciples spiritual freedom and power for restoring broken or injured relationships.

Don't brood over an offense. If you feel you have been wronged by someone, Jesus says the first step is to speak directly, but privately, to the individual. One of the worst things we can do is brood over our grievance. This can poison our mind and heart and make it more difficult to go directly to the person who caused the damage.

If face to face dialog fails to resolve the issue, seek the help of wise Christians. Get assistance from another person or two; people who are wise and gracious and not judgmental. The goal is not so much to put the offender on trial, but to persuade the offender to see the wrong and to be reconciled.

And if this fails, seek the help of the Christian community. Note the emphasis here is on restoring a broken relationship by seeking a solution for reconciliation based on Christian prayer, love and wisdom.

Jesus wants to set us free from resentment and ill-will, and to provide an opportunity to mend what is broken.
