30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." - Mt 22:37

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1986, 1979 CSD, GLPN

Because God Loved Us First

The Pharisees prided themselves in the knowledge of the law of Moses and the ritual requirements of the law. They made it a life-time practice to study the 613 precepts of the Torah - the books of the Old Testament containing the Law of Moses - along with the numerous rabbinic commentaries on the law. The religious authorities tested Jesus to see if he correctly understood the law as they did. Jesus startled them with his profound simplicity and mastery of the law of God and its purpose.

Jesus summarized the whole of the law in two great commandments: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might" (Deuteronomy 6:5) and "you shall love your neighbor as yourself". (Leviticus 19:18). God's love directs all that he does - His love is holy, just, and pure because it seeks only what is good, beneficial, and life-giving.

That is why he commands us to love; to accept and to give only what is good, lovely, just, and pure and to reject whatever is contrary.

Memorial Mass at Holy Cross Cemetery Wed. Nov, 2nd at 10:30 AM

This Mass will be a Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. The Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Emeritus Robert Guglielmo.

All are invited to attend.

Please note that there will be no Mass at Nativity
