Getting Back to the Basics

One of the greatest golfers of all time was Jack Nicklaus. Which is why it is baffling that at the beginning of each season he would return to his childhood coach and re-learn how to grip the golf club. It's like Shakespeare re-learning the alphabet and grammar. Why would he do that? Because Jack knew that the fundamentals are always relevant. Perfecting and obsessing over his grip allowed him to do everything else in the game well. In sports and life, the best ones love the basics.

Similarly, during Lent, we re-learn the spiritual basics in the Ten Commandments. Consider the first, to "have no other gods besides me." This is our "grip" - our connection to God in fidelity and exclusive worship. Am I willing to let go of the things I cling to instead of God? Once we say "yes" to this fundamental question of our spiritual "grip," then we are ready to properly engage with everything else in life.

Watch how beautifully the game of life unfolds in the next nine commandments (numbered in parentheses): how we speak to God and others (2 and 8), how we organize our week (3), how we relate to our family (4) and the wider community (5 and 7), how we live our sexuality (6), and how we order all the other desires of the human heart (9 and 10). But don't rush to these later Commandments too soon! Everything in life is built on the first Commandment.

This week, identify what you can do to better worship God alone. If you're not sure, scan the last nine commandments to identify what you are most likely to worship instead of God. Power, pleasure, control of your time, possessions, family, health, reputation, money? Commit to concrete action to help you let go of this "idol" and hold on to God alone.

Christmas returned to Nativity School on “Thankful Thursday”, Feb. 22.

The Nativity Ladies Guild “Giving Tree” program is a fund raiser to collect items and funds for classroom supplies and learning aids that were requested by the Nativity School Teachers. The teachers and students were beyond excited to receive the items that you, our Parish Community, provided for them.

in the Church

Anointing of the Sick is the sacrament that is received by those who are suffering from a potentially life threatening illness, those planning to have serious surgery and by those in advanced years.

Through the anointing and the prayer of the priest, the whole Church commends those who are sick to Christ. Those anointed receive the Holy Spirit's gifts of strength, faith, peace, and courage. Their suffering is united with that of Christ.

After the sacrament, the Nativity Ladies Guild will sponsor a reception in the Parish Life Center for the anointed and their families.

LENT: THE TIME FOR PRAYER, FASTING AND ALMSGIVING

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of

In addition, all Fridays in Lent are

Reconciliation Service

Tues. March 12 @ 6:30 pm

There will be a communal prayer service followed by the opportunity for individuals to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Several priests will be available.

Catholics are required to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once per year. All are encouraged to take advantage of the Sacrament on a regular basis. This service provides Catholics the opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation to prepare themselves to receive Christ at Easter.

All are encouraged to attend

Grocery gift card

Once again, the Nativity Ladies Guild, will be collecting Grocery Gift Cards. The cards will be delivered to Neighborhood House and James Island Outreach. These ministries will distribute your donations to families in need of food for Easter.

Here is how this works:

1. Visit your favorite grocery store and purchase a gift card (any store, any amount).
2. Write the value of the of the card on the front of the card (this is really important).
3. Put the card in an envelope and write "Ladies Guild" on the outside of the envelope.
4. Put the envelope in the collection at Mass between now and March 24 (Palm Sunday).

It is that simple but if you want more information, please contact Christine Lewis at lewischristined@att.net

This is a great way to practice Lenten almsgiving.

Thank you for your generosity
