"THERE IS NO ONE WHO PERFORMS A MIGHTY DEED
IN MY NAME WHO CAN AT THE SAME TIME SPEAK
ILL OF ME." - MK 9:39

The Angel in the Marble

"Be yourself," we tell our kids. "If someone expects you to change to be their friend, you don't want to be that person's friend."

And sure, all of that is true ... to an extent. But I think if we really analyze our closest friendships, we'll see that we have been changed by them. We aren't the same person we were on the day we met our best friend or before we fell in love with our spouse. The good relationships should always change us, form us. They should call us to some higher plateau on the mountain climb that is life. But to be nimble enough for the climb, there will be parts of ourselves that we have to jettison — preconceived notions, prejudices, selfish tendencies, habits that we cling to like a security blanket.

This is how we become who we are meant to be: by discerning what isn't helpful and good in our own nature, and letting it go. "I saw the angel in the marble," Michelangelo once said of his artistic process, "and I carved until I set him free."

God looks at us and he sees the angel hidden in the marble, imprisoned there by the constraints of earthly life: original sin, the weakness of our flesh, the unceasing enticement of the evil one. He sees past what we need to excise, what we need to lop off, what we need to relinquish. He knows we are greatly attached to every part of ourselves, even those parts that lead us to sin. He sees more than what is. He sees what can be.

Community Survey

When we launched the NativityCharleston.com website over 10 years ago, it was very 'trendy'. We had good graphics, "sliders", multiple pages, lots of information and very current. But time can take its toll and for many reasons, our website needs a substantial upgrade.

We would greatly appreciate your ideas and comments on our existing website as we look to update it this fall.

Here is the link to the Nativity website survey form:

9:00 am Sunday Nursery
We Renovated the Space!
It is newly Furnished!
We know there is Need.

The Nursery has been a well used and valuable ministry in our parish. In order to be able to re-open and provide this service to young families, we must be able to properly staff the nursery. We will need a team of at least 10 or 12 volunteers so that no one needs to serve more than once a month.

Nativity volunteers who minister in programs involving the children of Nativity Parish/School are required to complete the required screenings and awareness/prevention training (VIRTUS) for Creating Safe Environments.

For more information and to help us restart this program, please contact Mary Smith at dre@nativitycharleston.org or at 843-795-3821 ext. 104.

All we need now is YOU!

Wednesday Evening Bible Study

meets from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm in the Meeting Room of the Nativity Parish Life Center.

St. Matthew's Gospel was considered the most influential and popular book among the early Christian community. In this four part series, Dr. Pitre will explain why that is the case and how for the early Jewish Christians, in particular, St. Matthew clearly makes the case for how the long awaited hopes of the Jewish people are being fulfilled in Jesus.

For more information, please contact Andrea Gilliard at acgilliard@comcast.net

All are encouraged to Participate.

The Knights of Columbus' pilgrim icon prayer program is a longstanding tradition, in which every few years a sacred image is selected to inspire the Knights and their communities. This year, the Knights have chosen an icon of St. Joseph holding the child Jesus.

The St. Joseph Icon will be displayed in the sanctuary of Nativity Church from Saturday Sep 21 through Sunday Sep 29 for veneration and reflection.

"St. Joseph offered his life in service and sacrifice to the Holy Family by following the will of God. As we gather to honor the Guardian of the redeemer, let us ask God for that same trust and courage to embrace our own roles as Guardians of the family and truth"

Radical Solidarity Prayer

O Blessed Mother, at the angel's word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own. By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations. Ask your Son to give us unflinching determination to witness to the profound dignity of every person, at every stage and in every circumstance. In that first Eucharistic procession, you carried Jesus to Elizabeth in her time of need. Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid. May our support help them to find hope and strength in the Lord. Amen.

Next Weekend (Oct 5 & 6) is Fellowship Weekend In the Parish Life Center
