29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Catholic Diocese of Charleston

"WHOEVER WISHES TO BE GREAT AMONG YOU WILL BE YOUR SERVANT; WHOEVER WISHES TO BE FIRST AMONG YOU WILL BE THE SLAVE OF ALL."
- MK 10:43-44

Jesus turns authority upside down

Who doesn't want to be first, and to be esteemed and honored by others? We seem to have an unquenchable thirst for recognition and fame, power and authority to rule our own lives as we please as well as the lives of others. James and John, the sons of Zebedee, urged their mother to strike a deal with Jesus. They wanted the distinction of being most important in position, next to Jesus, of course!

When Jesus called the twelve apostles to be his inner circle of disciples, he did the unthinkable! Jesus reversed the order of master and servant, lord and subject, first and last! Jesus wedded authority with love, position with sacrifice, and service with humility. Authority without love is over-bearing. Position without respect and concern for the subordinate is demeaning. And service without generosity and sacrifice is cheap and unkind.

Those who wish to serve with the Lord Jesus must be prepared to sacrifice - not just some of their time, money, and resources - but their whole lives. For some disciples such service entails physical suffering and the painful struggle of martyrdom. But for many, it entails the long routine of the Christian life, with all its daily sacrifices, disappointments, set-backs, struggles, and temptations.

A Prayer for Life to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, you came that we might have life—and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers' wombs and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it.

By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable. For you are God, forever and ever. Amen.
