Conversion is good for the Soul

Bartimaeus' story is primarily a conversion story. He received an invitation to faith from Jesus. We are told that he threw off his outer garment and came to Jesus. In the time of Jesus, a person's clothing was a symbol of their identity. To cast off one's clothing was a way of saying that a person was leaving behind their former identity so as to become a new person. Bartimaeus courageously approaches the Lord, having left behind the trappings of his former life. He receives vision, both physical and spiritual and follows the "way", which is another way of saying he became a disciple of Jesus.

All these elements have a great deal to say to us in our lives as disciples. We, too, need to remember that it takes courage to live the Gospel and profess our faith in Jesus in the midst of a secular world. Our culture does not readily welcome or value religious expression, the sanctity of human life, the dignity of the human person, and other values of our faith. Finally, we need to remember that it is Jesus who is calling us to Himself and offering us a sharing in His very life which alone can overcome the forces of sin and death. Our response to that invitation, and a demonstration of our courage, is to freely and eagerly cast off the trappings of a former life so as to embrace our new identity as a Baptized member of the Body of Christ. The reality is that discipleship requires a transformation of life, and change is not always easy when it involves letting go of our bad habits and attitudes, while learning to sacrificially love God and neighbor.

Deacon Michael Ghattas

I am Michael Ghattas and my home parish is St. Andrew Church, Myrtle Beach. I am a transitional deacon studying for the diocese of Charleston. I recently finished my last summer assignment at Saint Peter Basilica and am completing my last year at St. Vincent Seminary. Thanks to your support, I have been able to complete six years of seminary. I finished my philosophical studies at Holy Trinity Seminary in Dallas TX, and received my degree from the University of Dallas. God willing, my ordination to the priesthood will be on June 6th, 2025 at the Cathedral of Saint John the Baptist, Charleston, SC.

Our journey to the priesthood is full of challenges but your support provides for our essential needs. This allows us to focus on our relationship with God. Thank you very much for your generosity. I hope that as a priest I will be able to give back just a little bit to what you have given me and the all the Seminarians over the years.

Fund Raiser for Diocese of Charleston Seminarians through November 10.

Currently the Knights of Columbus are helping to support 3 men who are studying for the priesthood for the Diocese of Charleston. SC (Michael Ghattas, Paul Sizemore and Michael Tracy). Yes the diocese pays for the room, board and education while they are at the seminary. However, the diocese does not provide stipends for other expenses (e.g. transportation, communication, clothing, personal care, etc.). These expenses are supported by donations from family, friends and concerned parish organizations.

Here is how this works:

1. You can donate Cash, Check or with a Credit card.
2. Put money (cash, checks) into an envelope and Write Seminarians on the envelope
 - ⇒ Make checks payable to Knights of Columbus Council 6250
 - ⇒ Memo should say Seminarians
3. Return the envelope to the Nativity Church or mail to the Nativity Parish Office on or before Nov 10

Or you can donate online: at <https://square.link/u/WlsgJsXd> Or scan the QR Code.

DONATIONS WILL BE MATCHED TO A TOTAL OF $5000.

For more information, please contact Mike Cellars (843-830-0528 or mikecellars56@gmail.com)

Thank you for supporting these seminarians.
